CLUB NOTES

Up against the collar once again

Who can wonder if all at Deepdale, and our supporters too, are thinking there was never a truer saying than "It never rains, but it pours." Things continue to go wrong in our struggle to overcome the adversity which has truly plagued North End this season. In fact very little has gone right recently.

Realising how badly points are needed, and how vital it was to stop the costly leaks in defence, the team played hard at Portsmouth, concentrating particularly on putting up a stiff barrier, but, as luck would have it, we lost by the only goal and, ironically, it was snapped by "Pompey" in injury-time.

It illustrated how little things can lead to a goal — in this case a galling set back because it occurred in the very last minute. A pass was called for when it would have paid the forward to have hung on to the ball. His pass was mis-directed and Portsmouth swept into the attack with fatal results for us.

Their advance was halted by putting the ball into touch, but from the throw-in it was swept into the middle not far from goal and, the next second, was in our net. What made it worse was that a few minutes earlier Nobby Lawton had found a way through from Wilson's pass and his shot hit an upright, with the 'keeper beaten. Those are the things that happen when your luck is out !

Two nights later another tale of woe had to be chronicled, although it was not without a touch of glory. In North End's first attack Alec Ashworth, playing in only his second League match after his long absence through illness, went down injured and had to go off with an injured left knee. He did not return.

This was a repetition of our misfortune in the opening match of the season against Rotherham, when Alex Dawson suffered an ankle injury in the eighth minute and could not take any further part in the game. As on that occasion the team showed great spirit subsequently in refusing to be subdued, although depleted.

The result against Southampton was the same — 0-0, and one matter for satisfaction was at least the fact that it was the first time since August 22nd against Rotherham that our defence had kept a clean sheet. But for two matches in succession North End have lost their habit of scoring at least one goal.

A near 16,000 crowd showed spontaneous admiration of our gallant fight back in the Southampton match. Even with 10 men North End held the initiative for fully two-thirds of the game and Southampton had several narrow escapes in goalmouth struggles, notably when a shot by Smith hit a defender's knee near the end.

Now Ashworth has strained knee ligaments and Alex Dawson, whose transfer request was refused because we cannot afford to part with any player as things are, has the satisfaction of soon being back. A further strain on our limited resources is the withdrawal of Howard Kendall from active duty to give him the rest he requires to recover from a bruised foot.

KNOW YOUR TEAM 9. Doug. Holden

Outside left or right; born Manchester; previous clubs: Bolton Wanderers and Manchester Y.M.C.A. (Lancashire Amateur League); height 5 ft. 7½ ins., weight 10 st. 8 lb.; honours: 1959, England v. Scotland, Italy, Brazil, Peru, Mexico; F.A. Cup Final: 1953, for Bolton 3, Blackpool 4; 1958, for Bolton 2, Manchester United 0; 1963, for Preston North End 2, West Ham United 3. This terse catalogue of Duggie Holden's long and honourable career leaves no doubt that he is a player of considerable accomplishment, without giving the slightest indications of one of the principal reasons why he has always been popular with the public and respected and admired by his colleagues. For, on and off the field, our outside left has been a credit to his profession both during his 16 seasons as a more than serviceable winger with Bolton Wanderers and since his welcome arrival at Deepdale. His conduct, his approach to his training and other responsibilities, and his complete dedication to his job in the sense of living the life of an athlete make him a model professional. He has proved himself a worthy addition to a lengthy list of mature, ready-made players who have come to Deepdale after earning a reputation elsewhere and promptly fitted ideally into the intended role. At the small fee he cost, a nominal figure these days, he was a bargain; more than that he soon showed he had far from lost his craft and know-how, as all who recall his telling part in our Cup semi-final win against Swansea Town will readily acknowledge.

OUR VISITORS—Manchester City

Our always welcome guests of to-day, Manchester City, have provided opposition possessing style and personality for many years going back to when the legendary Welsh wizard Billy Meredith paced the Hyde-road scene before transferring his affections to Manchester United.

It may interest this younger generation to learn that this renowned outside right, a contemporary of Athersmith, Templeton, Rutherford and Simpson, and forerunner of Matthews and Finney played in more than 1,000 first-class matches 1894-1924, including 48 for Wales 1895-1920. He died 1958, aged 83, Eric Brook, outside left, served 1927-39, and Frank Swift, goalkeeper 1932-50.

Manchester City were thrashed 6-0 in our first meeting, an F.A. Cuptie at Deepdale on January 30th, 1897, they became devilish hard to beat in the ensuing years to the outbreak of World War I. Nine games were lost or drawn before we prevailed again in League or Cup. They continued to put a hoodoo on North End.

Several Cupties figured in the next 19 meetings and City chalked up eight wins and seven draws to our four victories. In all this time we won only once at Manchester. Between the wars and during the post-war period, Maine Road was a happy hunting ground for Preston, but City usually fared well at Deepdale.

What is more they usually turned out teams strong in personalities and played football worth watching, which makes it all the more a pity that this great Lancashire club of such fine tradition should be again in Division II, like ourselves.

Founded in 1880 as West Gorton, the City became Ardwick through amalgamation, and became one of the original members of the Second Division in 1892. Two years later the present name was adopted. Promotion to the select was first gained in 1899, since when Manchester City have had as many ups and downs as ourselves on the whirligig of League football. It would be an occasion for mutual rejoicing if fate ordained that we should go back together !

MANCHESTER CITY PLAYERS

Alan Ogley (goalkeeper). A highly promising product of the club of his native town, Barnsley. Neither hefty nor tall, but agile and hard to beat.

David Bacuzzi (right back). Doing his utmost to live up to a well-known name in football. Born London, and joined City from Arsenal for this season.

Victor Gomersall (left back). Born Manchester and a product of the City Juniors — one, in fact, of no fewer than 14 of the home-produced brigade on City's playing staff.

Bob Kennedy (right half). Back in the position he prefers and where he gives the most satisfaction. Played in 26 League games in 1963-4. Born Motherwell, and cost a stiff fee when signed from Kilmarnock.

Roy Gratrix (centre half). George Poyser, City's manager was quoted as not being particularly interested in Blackpool's long-serving and popular former player. If so, he must be glad he had second thoughts, for Roy, a native of Salford, has proved to be City's best pivot-stopper since Dave Ewing.

Alan Oakes (left half). A strapping youth, verging on 6 ft. and 12½ stone, and a good, well-matured footballer for his age. Developed through City's nursery into a strong and skilful player. Born Winsford.

David Wagstaffe (outside right). Another offshoot of City Juniors and much to the fore for two or three years in the oncoming generation. Made 35 League appearances last season, compared with 41 by his pal Oakes. Fast, tricky raider.

Matt Gray (inside right). A top-notcher for Third Lanark (born Renfrew) and the mainstay of City's attack in justification of the substantial cost of his transfer. Seldom absent last season from his duties as stoker-up.

Jimmy Murray (centre forward). Made his name with Wolves who could do with him back ! A live wire opportunist, quick on the ball and strong in going through. Hails from Dover. Scored 21 goals for City in only 19 League games last season.

Derek Kevan (inside left). Ex-England spearhead inside forward of fine physique, nigh six feet and over 13 stone. A hit with West Brom., not so hot with Chelsea, but back on the goals trail with City — he was their top scorer last season with 30 in his 40 League games. Born Ripon.

Neil Young (outside left). A big fellow for a winger, with 12 stone to go with his 6 ft 1 in. Manchester-born, developed with City Juniors. Made 37 League appearances last season.

OLD FAVOURITES 9. H. O'Donnell

It does not seem so, but next May 30 years will have passed since handsome Hughie, toast of the connoisseurs arrived at Deepdale with his distinguished taller brother Frank through a double transfer which would have carried banner headlines in the papers — and cost 15 times as much — if it had occurred to-day. Their like on the left wing of a First Division club would cause a sensation, not least because this accomplished pair, combining deceptive pace with penetration, so obviously had an affinity which put them in complete harmony with each other's purpose. The one was as sleek and graceful as a panther, the other majestic as a lion. North End's acquisition of Celtic's left wing thrilled Preston. Their fame had spread. Between them they scored 28 of the team's 67 goals in their first season. Hughie was the artist, smooth, unruffled, a completely natural footballer who gained his effects as if by stealth with his subtilty and beguiling finesse. Except when Tom Finney has been on the left wing North End have not had an outside left comparable to him in elegance and poise. He came to Preston the proud possessor of a Scottish Cup winner's medal, and soon played in two more Cup Finals — for North End against Sunderland in 1937, when he was on the losing side, and against Huddersfield in 1938 when he gained the coveted emblem of success at Wembley. When transferred to Blackpool on March 14th, 1939, he had played in 132 League matches and 16 Cup-ties for North End. He returned to contribute to our war-time Cup and League double, and became one of the many Scottish footballers to settle in Preston.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES—continued

MEADOWS F.C.—10 v. SUPPORTERS' CLUB—3, Sunday, November 1st. The club received a real hiding from ex-North End favourite Hughie O'Donnell's lads last week, but perhaps there is some excuse. Most of the team had made the 500 mile round trip to Portsmouth over the week-end and would probably have preferred to stay in bed ! But, after all, it's the spirit of the game and not the result which matters here, and our lads continued to play football right to the final whistle. Our goals came from Langton 2, and D. Redhead (penalty).

Forthcoming Trips

CHARLTON ATHLETIC — November 14th. There are still some vacancies for this weekend trip to London which is proving quite popular. The cost, including fare, and bed and breakfast is 72/6. Stand tickets are at 9/- each.

BURY — Friday, November 27th. Coaches leave at 6-0 p.m. and return immediately after the game. The fare is 3/9.
